Summary.

It would appear that young Hughes left Landerdale Co around the end of 1858 or first of 1859 after the sale of William Hughes estate probably and removed to Holmes County Miss.

An Index of nearly 2½ years of the newspaper the Landerdale Republican compiled by Fred W Edmiston reflects the following Hughes, Peter B 21 March 1854 administrator of estate of Joseph Reabey deceased. On 9/11/1855 signed with others of, SUGUALENA (this in Landerdale Co) a notice of Withdrawal from Know-Nothing Party.

Hughes, William 25 June 1855 Estate declared insolvent. William C Dotter administrator. This could have been the William Hughes that was murdered.

William Hughes owned total of 520 acres Valued at $5,200.00

This land was West of Memphis, and South of Sugaulena.

* Hughes, Peter B owned 240 acres Valued at $1,440.00

This land was just east of Sugaulena

William Hughes probably buried somewhere in Vicinity of Sugaulena. Could have been at Hellieburg which was closer.

* P.B Hughes also owned 40 acres Valued at $320.00 which was just south of Martin (Lauderdale Co)

No record of John B Hughes owning land was found. Perhaps he was still at home and operating his fathers estate or he may have already moved to Holmes County.

If you feel information is worthy please send me $20.00.

I will be on look out for further information.

If your Wellboms estate been sold by the Court a lot more information would have been available

Annice C Hughes probably went to Holmes Co. MS with the other of the family.

Should you have me to check further please let me know.

Sincerely
Jim Dawson

 It is fairly certain that Johnson died shortly after

 Ebenezer Church minutes. Here MD says on Harvey

Seem to be same

Here I late I have gotten interested in the Hayman

In 1850 Johnson Hayman was 40 to 45 to 1810 - Now this has to be the younger Johnson - son of Johnson Hayman

Then there was statement that a James Hughes to in Union

Then James Haler just might be father of John - ~~I don't know~~ ~~when John was born~~ - but if he got m'd CA 1840 he was prob 25 or so years of age - he would have been to CA 1815. No could not - Possibly a bro of James - 1811 - 1815? Here John ex from Your John is like my Eli.

In checking Alabama Records there is very little on Haymons.

Feel sure your Hughes did not come up there the MS territory - so I was just SC - to GA & (NO) & AL & MS
It is very possible that John + Denver had ^{Al} ~~in Tenn~~

I think now that my Eli came out of Tenn. Hope to get time to look soon. If can get Virginia to look at early Census index 1820-1830 for Hughes, Dawson + Haymons at State Archives. This might give back to the Co - from which
